PUNT LIKE A PRO

DONATED BY THOMAS MORSTEAD

VALUE: $1,500

Imagine the excitement on your child's face when he - or she! - and up to nine (9) friends take part in a fun-filled one-hour football kicking clinic in Crested Butte with Thomas Morstead, star punter for the New Orleans Saints, and part-time Crested Butte resident. Thomas will teach the skills needed to become a proficient kicker while having lots of fun! After the clinic, Thomas will treat the future star punters to pizza and/or ice cream. Additionally, each participant will receive a special memento of their day with the NFL star! The camp will take place on a mutually agreed upon date in June or early July 2021.

Thomas Morstead, a native of Pearland, Texas and a graduate of SMU, was drafted by the New Orleans Saints in the 2009 NFL Draft. Thomas, an outstanding NFL player for over 11 years, is perhaps most famous for the critical role he played in the Saints' victory over the Indianapolis Colts in Super Bowl XLIV. In that game, he executed a surprise onside kick on the second-half kickoff. The Saints recovered the ball, scored a touchdown and went on to win the game 31-17. Thomas was named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors twice during the 2019 season and was also named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in September 2019.

Thomas is also a published author, having co-authored, "The Middle School Rules of Thomas Morstead," with Sean Jensen, who created The Middle School Rules series. The book shares how Thomas learned about his cultural roots, handled being bullied for his appearance and dealt with the disappointment of not making the high school varsity soccer team. Inspired by many, including his parents, Thomas pushes himself in every area of his life and boldly chases his dreams.

Date to be mutually agreed upon for June or early July 2021. Up to 10 participants in the camp. Must take place in Crested Butte.

A FLY FISHERMAN'S DREAM: ROLF BAGINSKI BAMBOO FLY ROD AND STENZEL REGENT 1 FLY REEL

DONATED BY PAMELA LEVERICK, IN HONOR AND LOVING MEMORY OF HER RECENTLY DECEASED HUSBAND, RIC LEVERICK

Rolf Baginski of Germany is one of Europe's premier builders of bamboo fly rods. Known for the quality of his tapers, his magnificent silk wrapping and varnish finishing work, a Baginski rod is both a work of art and a superior fishing tool. The Baginski rod being offered here is his "International" model, with lightly flamed cane designed to bring out the rich brilliance of the Tonkin bamboo. A three-piece, one-tip rod, assembled to just under seven-and-a-half feet, this model would be ideal for fishing any water in the Gunnison valley. Unlike many bamboo rod tapers offered by other makers, Rolf's "International" is a stiff taper, which enables the rod to throw line a long distance with extreme accuracy. Because of the stiffness of the taper, this rod would be perfect for someone used to fishing graphite fly rods who wants to explore the use of bamboo fly rods for trout fishing.

For a bamboo rod enthusiast, this rod would be a "go-to" rod for the East, Taylor, or Gunnison Rivers. Fished best with a five-weight floating line, it can handle a six-weight line with ease if conditions require bigger flies, or a four-weight line for smaller waters. The rod is enclosed in a hand-tooled leather case, further enhancing its presentation. A German engineered and manufactured Stenzel Regent 1 fly reel is included in this package. With a black anodized frame and a gold anodized spool, this reel is itself a work of art and a perfect complement to the rod. An extensive amount of backing is already on the spool. This rod and reel has been fished by the prior owner, but done so in a very respectful manner. When not on the water, this rod would make a beautiful wall or beam hanging in a great room of a fine Crested Butte home.

Joe was named the Number One pick in the recent NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. Ed Orgeron has been the head football coach for the LSU Tigers since midway through the 2016 season, and coached the Tigers to a convincing victory over Clemson in the 2020 College Football Playoff National Championship.

Burrow and Coach O led LSU to a 15-0 season. The Tigers beat seven Top Ten teams, and became only the second team in college football history to score 700 points (ending the season with a whopping 726 points, the most of any team ever!).
